DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-25 are pending in this application.
2. The indicated allowability of claims 1-25 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference to Itabashi et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,850,047). A rejection based on the newly cited reference follows.
3. The non-statutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute), so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A non-statutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a non-statutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-25 are provisionally rejected on the ground of non-statutory double patenting over claims 1-23 of co-pending U.S. Application Serial No. 10/750,415 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced co-pending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that co-pending application since the referenced co-pending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: Claims 1-23 of U.S. Application Serial No. 10/750,415 contain every element of claims 1-25 of the instant application and as such anticipate claims 1-25 of the instant application. Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why Applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other co-pending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP §804.

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. §102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by Applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by Applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(e), as being clearly anticipated by Itabashi et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,850,047), which discloses a softstart circuit which anticipates the claims.

The reference not only soft starts at initial turn-on, but also initiates soft-start when there is a voltage dip (col. 3, lines 7-12). So, when the voltage drops to a first level, the power supply dynamically varies the duty cycle (col. 2, lines 51-53). Fig. 3 shows how soft-start occurs at ignition-on and when there is a voltage dip caused, for example, by an engine start. Thus, during the transition, the control parameters (duty ratio) of the power supply are varied (soft-start cycle), dynamically controlling the transition to the output level.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to Applicant's disclosure. Applicant is advised to carefully review the cited art, as evidence of the state of the art, in preparation for responding to this Office action.
